

CYPRUS ACTION NETWORK OF AMERICA sends its deepest condolences to the relatives of our brothers – victims, who lost their lives so unjustifiably the early hours of this morning (11 July 2011) in the new tragedy that has fallen upon our beloved island at the Evagelos Florakis Naval Base.

We cannot forget this specific day as it was at another 11th of July that the ex Commander of the National Guard of the Republic of Cyprus was killed in an unexplained helicopter accident. And in his Memory the naval base was named after him.

CANA includes in this press release and in MEMORY of our brothers who lost their lives in the tragedy today the very first leader article written about this tragedy, the leader of the Greek newspaper in New York, the National Herald.
